LEGACY OF THE SUN

a neo-egyptian couture

exploration

This collection masterfully merges the profound heritage of ancient Egypt with the audacious spirit of contemporary avant-garde fashion. It's a tribute to a civilization that epitomized power, mystery, and opulence, reinterpreted through a modern lens. The deliberate choice of an all-black palette, punctuated by regal gold accents, serves to amplify the inherent drama and sophistication of the garments. Black, with its timeless allure, provides a striking backdrop for the intricate details and silhouettes, while gold, symbolic of the sun god Ra and Ancient Egyptians wealth, infuses each piece with an unmistakable sense of luxury and historical esteem. The iconic scarab beetle, a potent symbol of rebirth and protection in ancient Egyptian mythology, is subtly integrated throughout the collection, serving as powerful motif reflecting the era's enduring mysticism. By re-imagining the draped elegance of traditional linen garments into haute couture creations, this collection transcends temporal boundaries, offering a collection that is both deeply rooted in history and boldly forward-thinking.

Asymmetrical top crossing over the shoulders is made of semi-transparent, sequin-embroidered fabric. The right shoulder is left exposed for a dynamic silhouette. The skirt is designed in a mermaid shape with golden smoke effects and glitter details on black fabric. Sparkling side panels and a subtle train complete the look.

Strapless metallic-detailed top is accentuated with geometric gold accessories extending from the shoulders.

The torso is connected with transparent chain elements.

The lower part features a draped sheer skirt combined with a form-fitting mini base on one leg.

Long metallic-striped arm cuffs are used as complementary accessories.

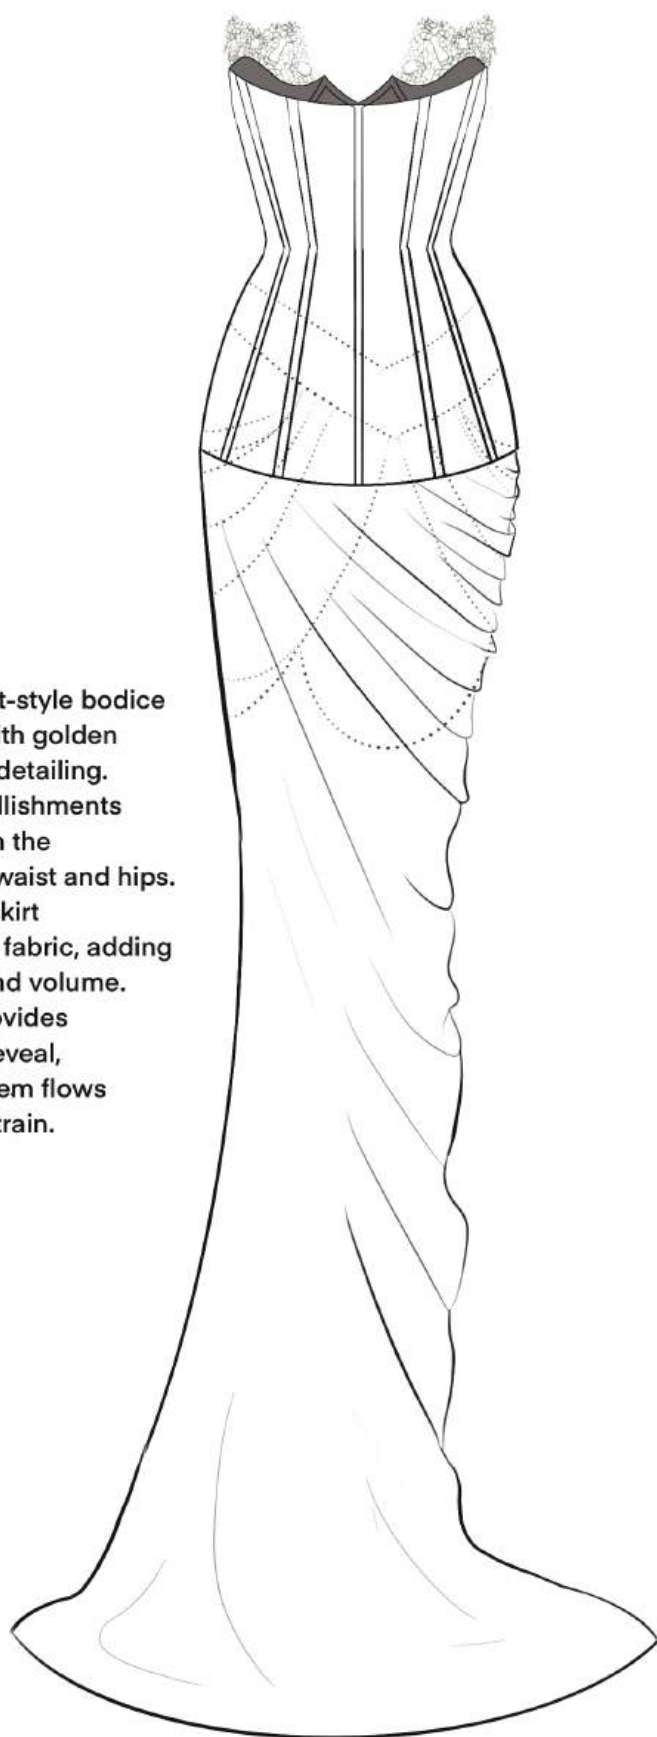

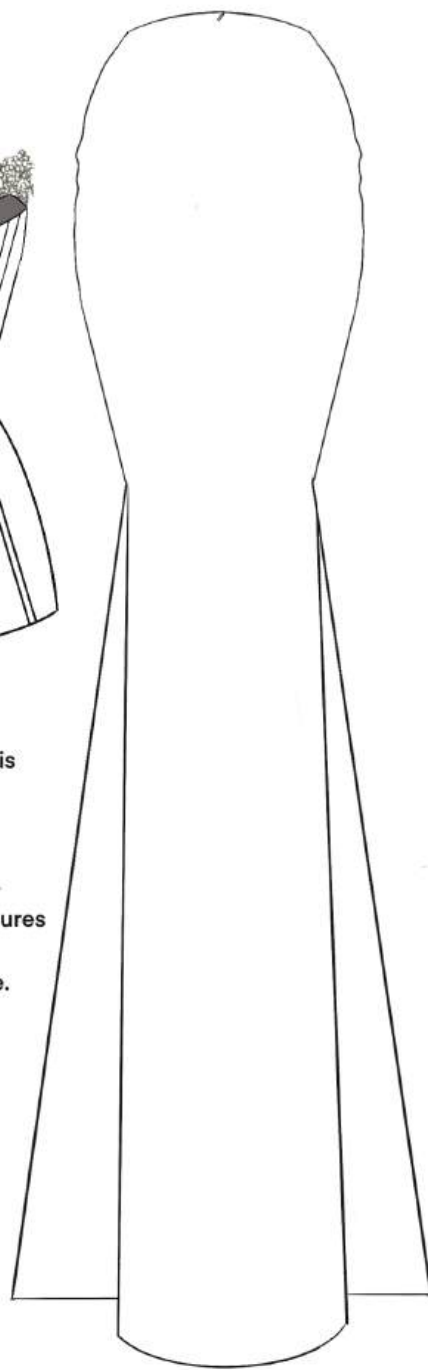

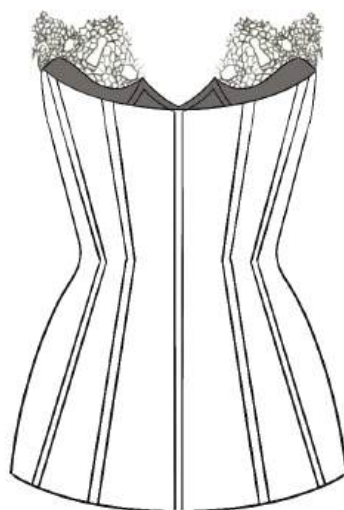

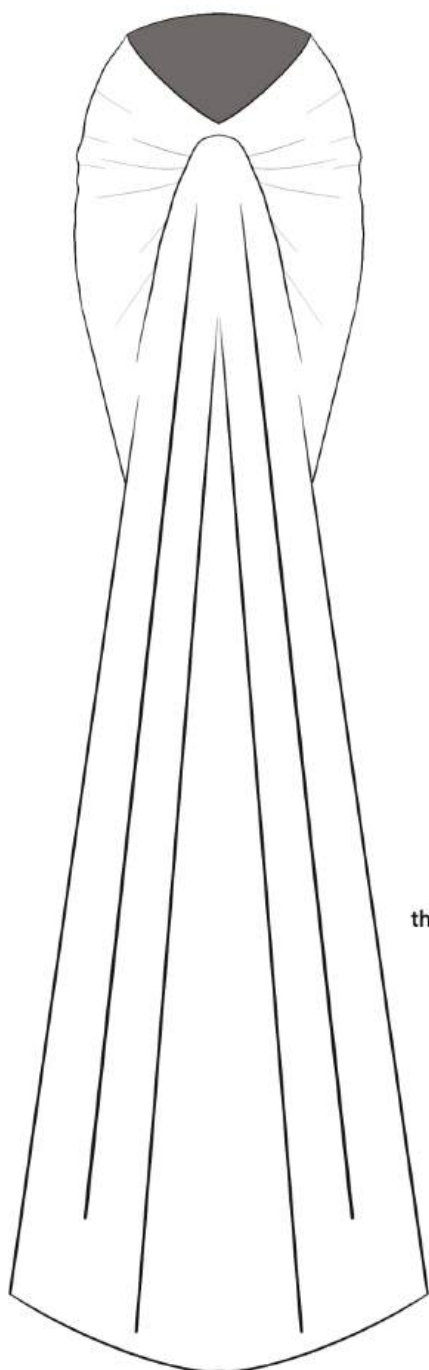

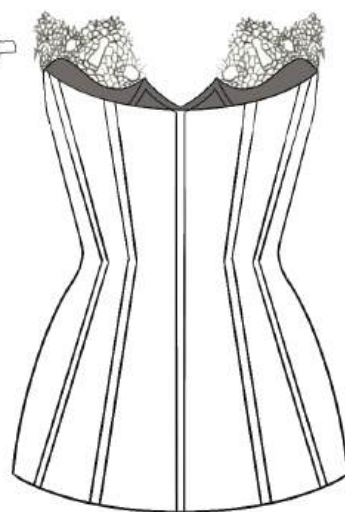

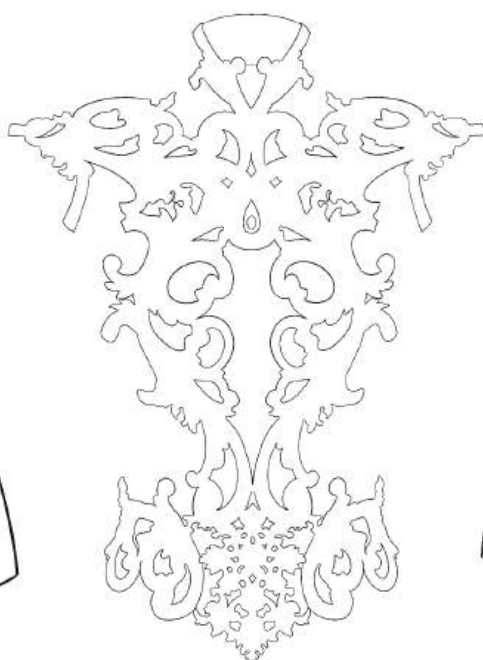

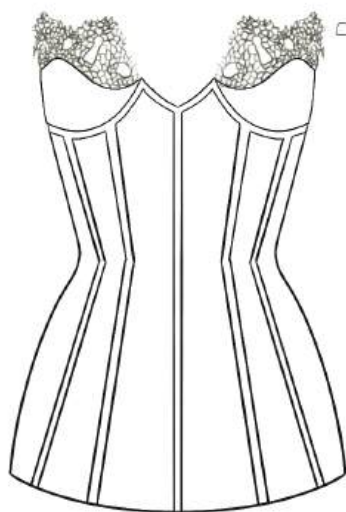

The sweetheart corset-style bodice is emphasized with golden piping and lace detailing. Gold chain embellishments starting from the waist accentuate the waist and hips.

The lower skirt features sheer draped fabric, adding both movement and volume.

A side slit provides an elegant reveal, while the back hem flows into a slight train.

A sheer lace piece covers the bust, while the brown draped fabric at the waist blends into an ombré skirt.

The look evokes both femininity and warrior-like strength

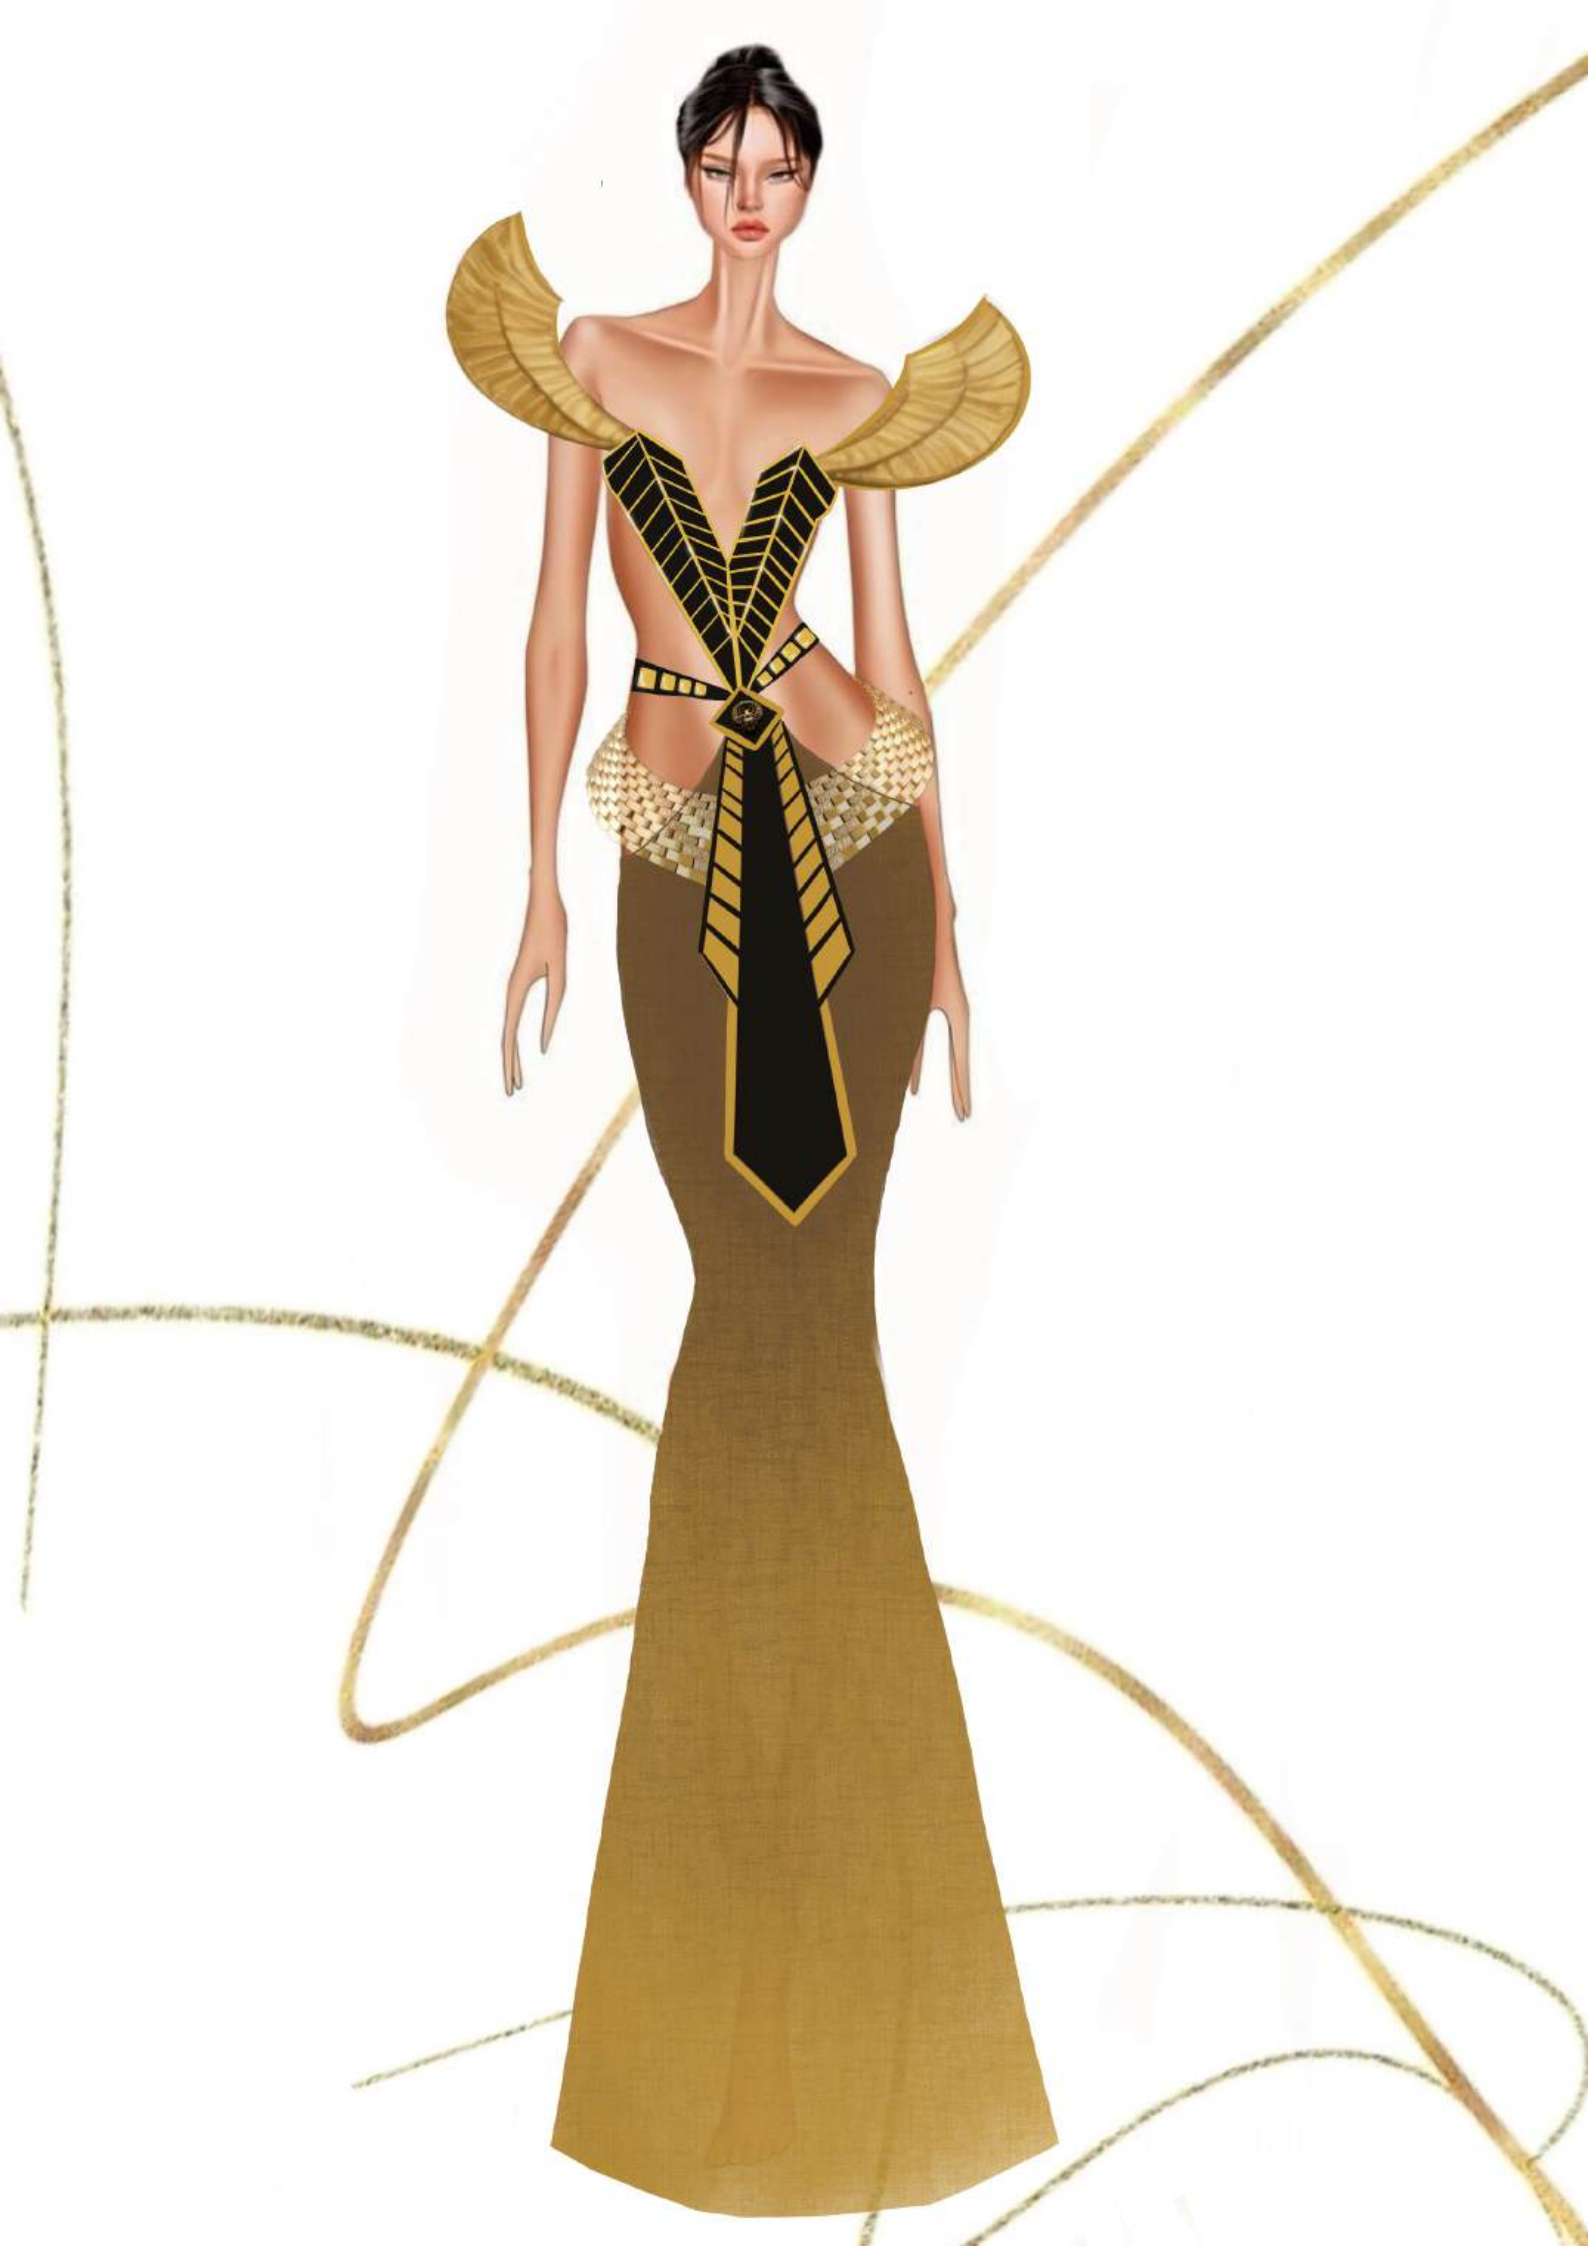

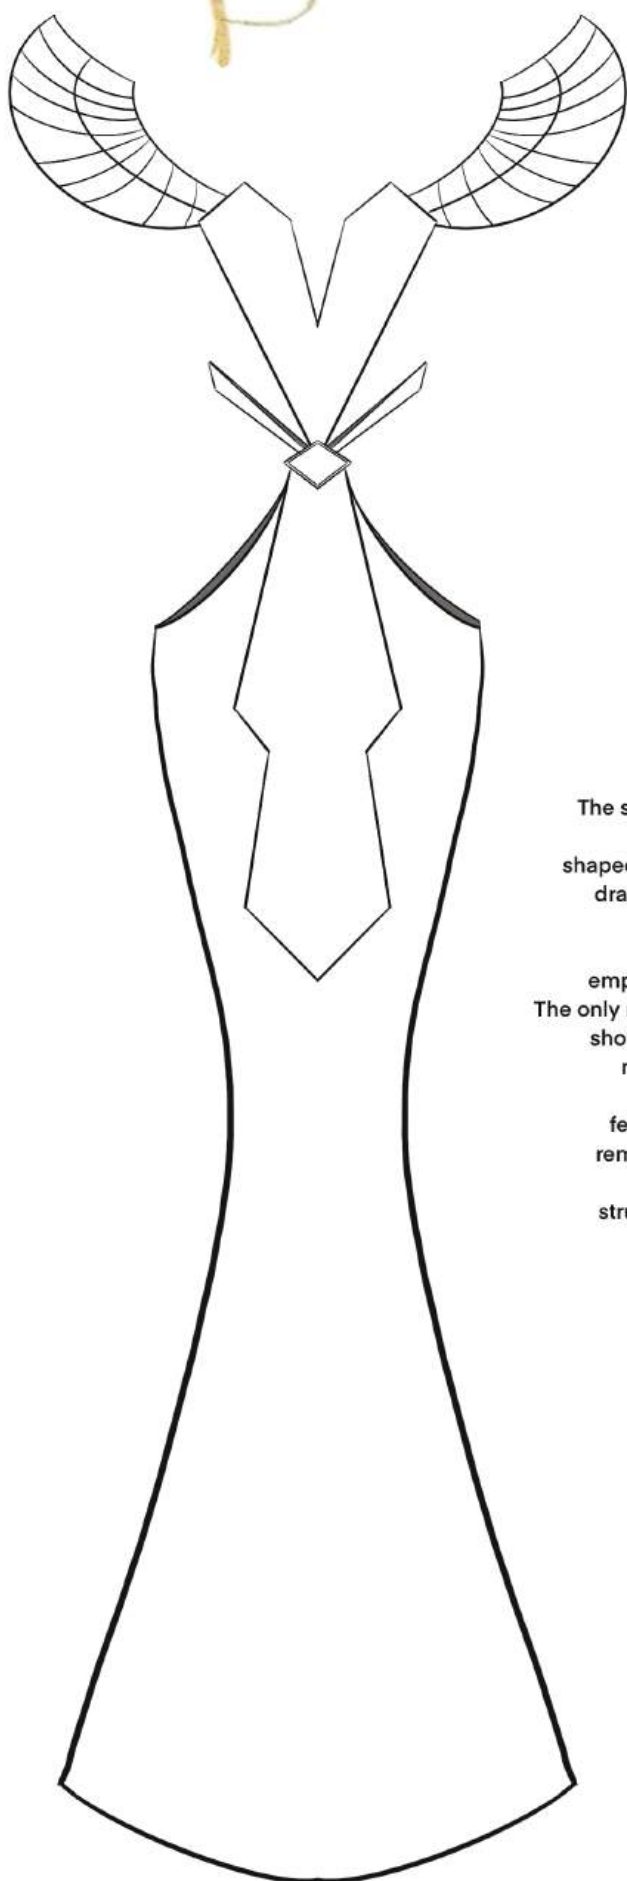

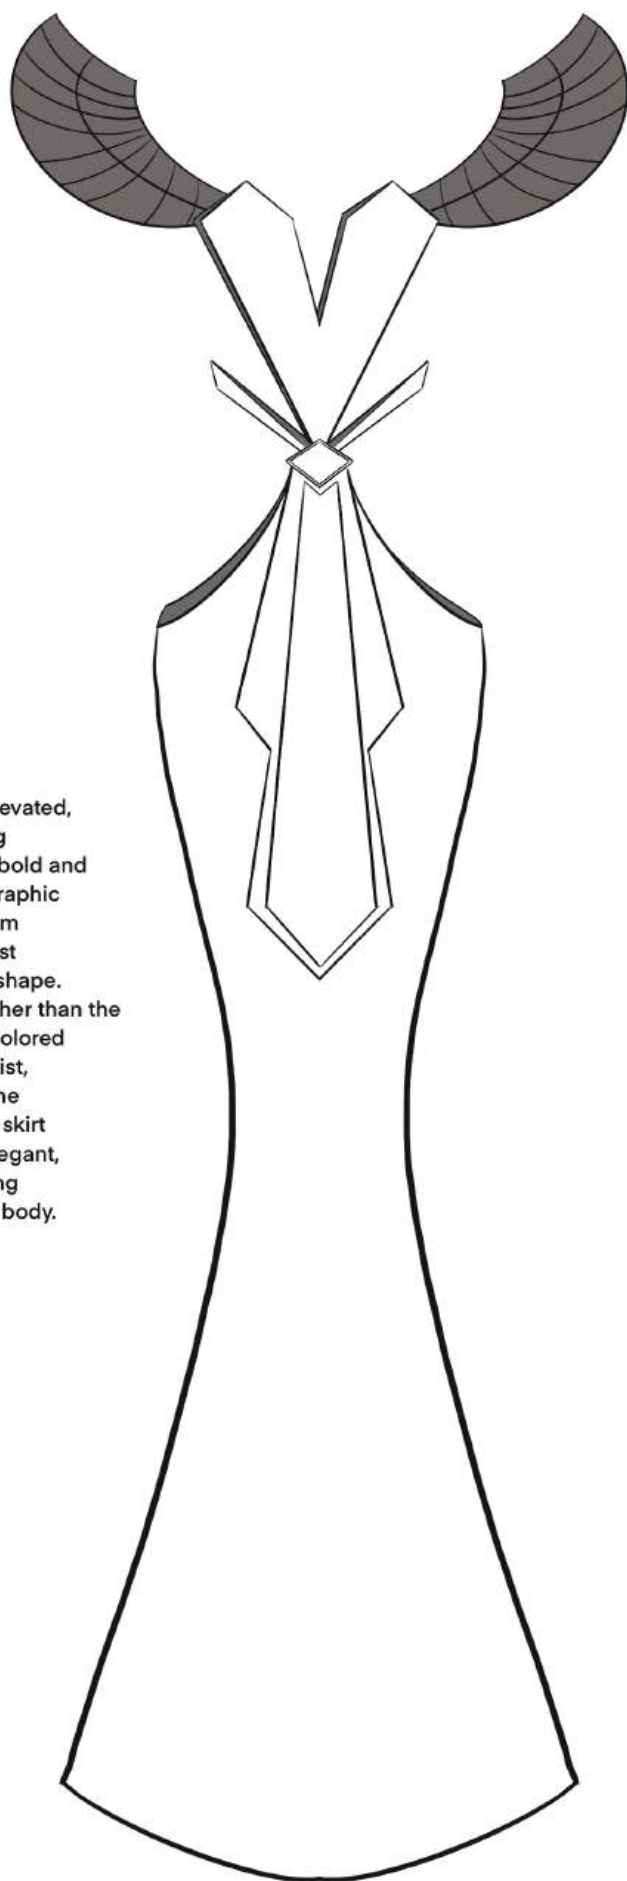

This halter-neck evening gown features a structured corset bodice with lace-lined cups and gold trim detailing. The fitted silhouette hugs the body and transition into a draped waist, blending seamlessly into a floor-length skirt. The skirt showcases abstract gold wave patterns on a black base, evoking movement and elegance.

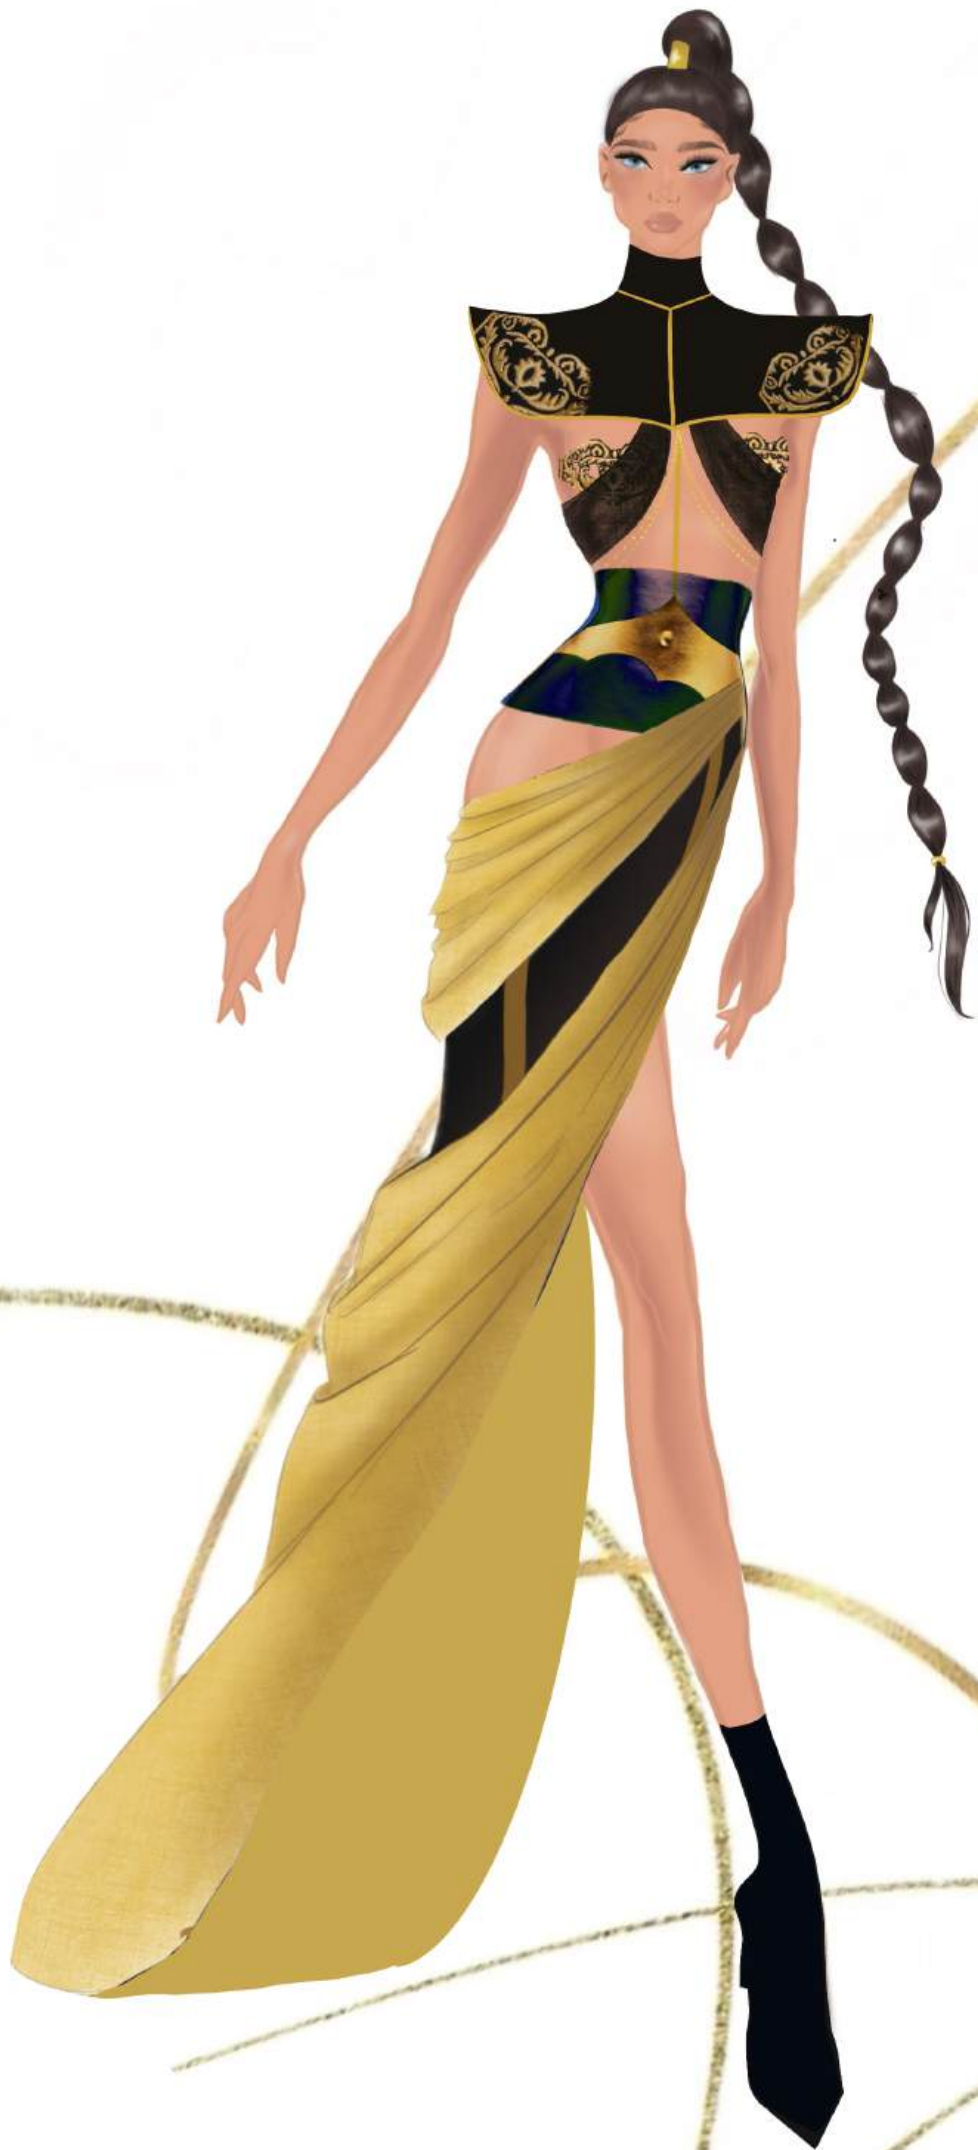

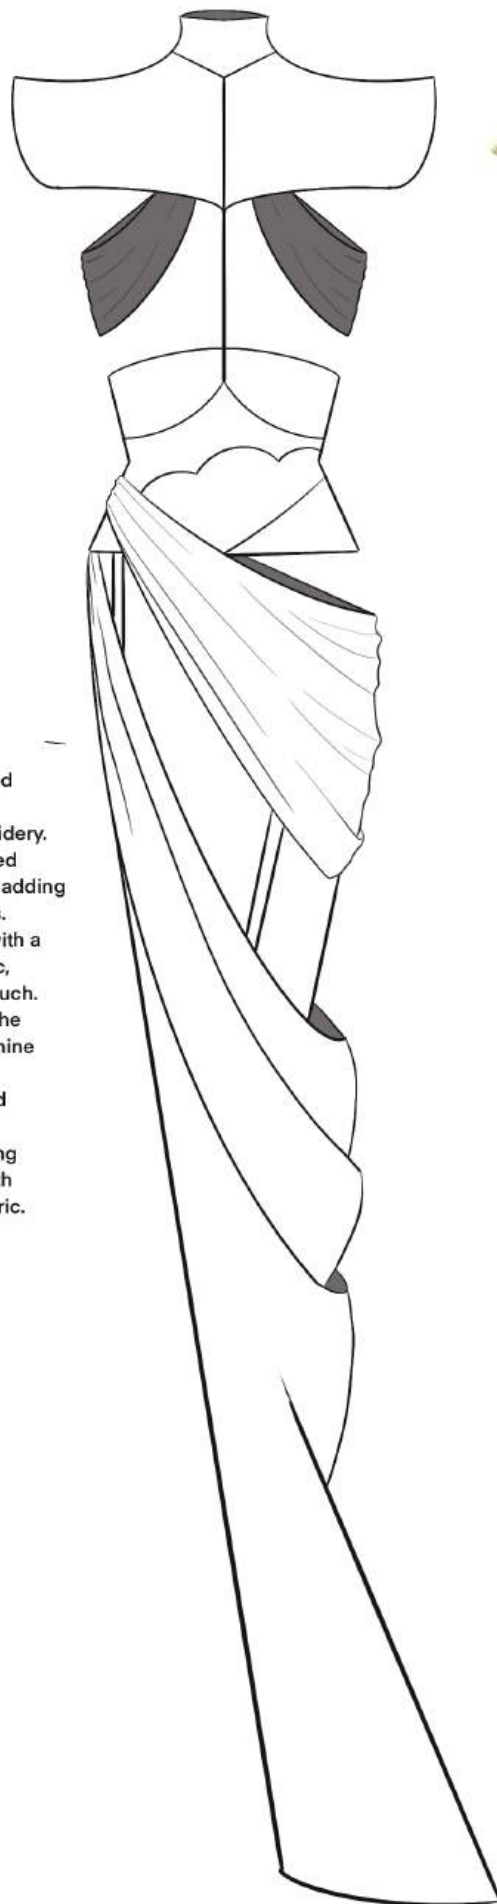

The shoulders feature elevated, metallic bird-wing shaped forms, creating a bold and dramatic silhouette. Graphic stripes running from the bust to the waist emphasize the body's shape. The only metallic element other than the shoulders is the gold-colored metal belt at the waist, which highlights the feminine curves. The skirt remains simple and elegant, balancing the strong structure of the upper body.

Elevated, armor-inspired structured shoulders feature ornamental embroidery. The bust area is designed with transparent tulle fabric, adding contrast and lightness. The waist is highlighted with a metallic-textured fabric, contributing a futuristic touch. Geometric cut-outs on the bodice enhance the feminine silhouette. The skirt is constructed with asymmetric and diagonal drapes, creating movement and strength with metallic yellow fabric.
